JUNIOR PROM NIGHT. Rosalie Hajewski and date drop into chapel for a visit before proceeding toward the gym where dance was held.

How Dear

FREAKY MARCH 19th weather found these eager beavers skidding toward school hoping to beat the late slip. Below — frisky, twirling cheerleaders dazzle the onlookers during this IND game which we won 25-22.

CHRISTMAS CHEER. Mrs. Robinson and her home-ec class made the refreshments for the Mothers Club Christmas party, Dec. 11, festive and toothsome.

To Our Hearts

"WELCOME TO CATHOLIC HIGH." Sr. M. Lucetta, principal, and Sr. M. Constantine, superior, greet the lay teachers attending the annual Teachers Institute.

The Very Reverend
LEO J. McCORMICK, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools
Archdiocese of Baltimore

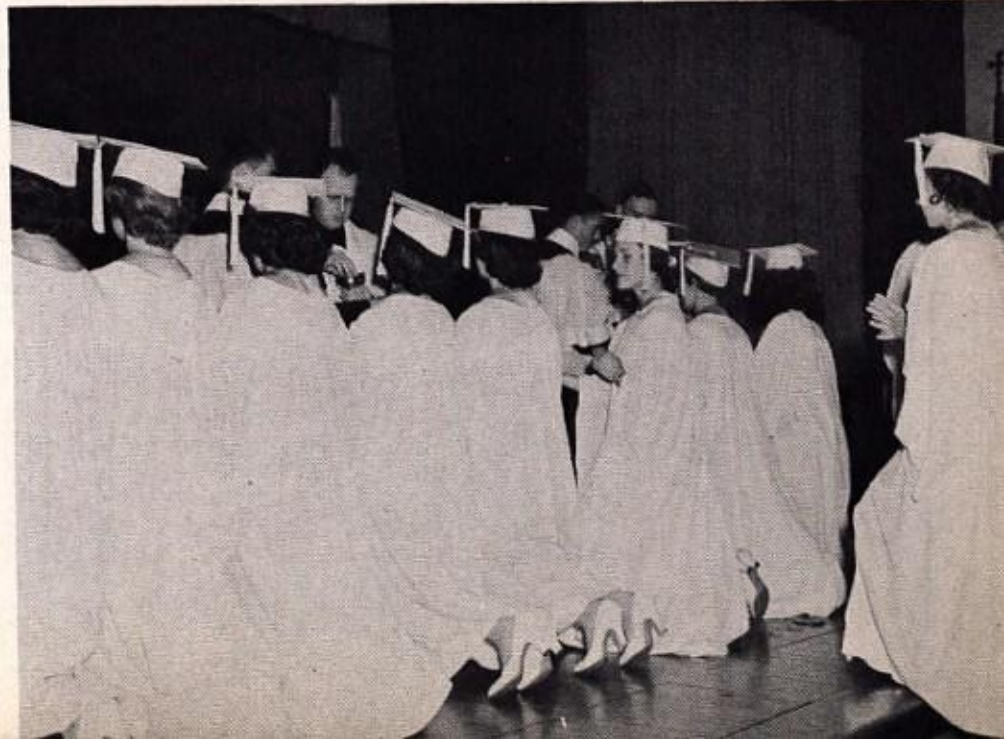

The Reverend
EDWARD V. ECHLE
Religious Instructor
The Catholic High School of Baltimore

made it possible for us to write this story.

ITA MISSA EST. Stage in the auditorium often becomes the sanctuary for Holy Mass. His Excellency, Archbishop Keough, opened the Teachers Institute on September 23, with a Solemn Pontifical Mass. Every Friday Mass is offered for the student body in the auditorium by Father O'Day or Father O'Neil, priests of the Josephite Community.

MONSIGNOR McCORMICK and Father O'Neil, S.S.J., give Holy Communion to the graduates on Baccalaureate Sunday, May 27.

SISTER M. CONSTANTINE, O.S.F.

Sister Constantine has been on the TCHS faculty since September, 1943. Now, as superior of the Franciscan Sisters teaching at The Catholic High School, Sister Constantine has assumed additional responsibilities which she fulfills with the same great self-sacrifice and devotion that has characterized all her efforts at The Catholic High School. May success and great blessings attend your new assignment, Sister Constantine.

To be really captivating,
a good story should sparkle with . . .

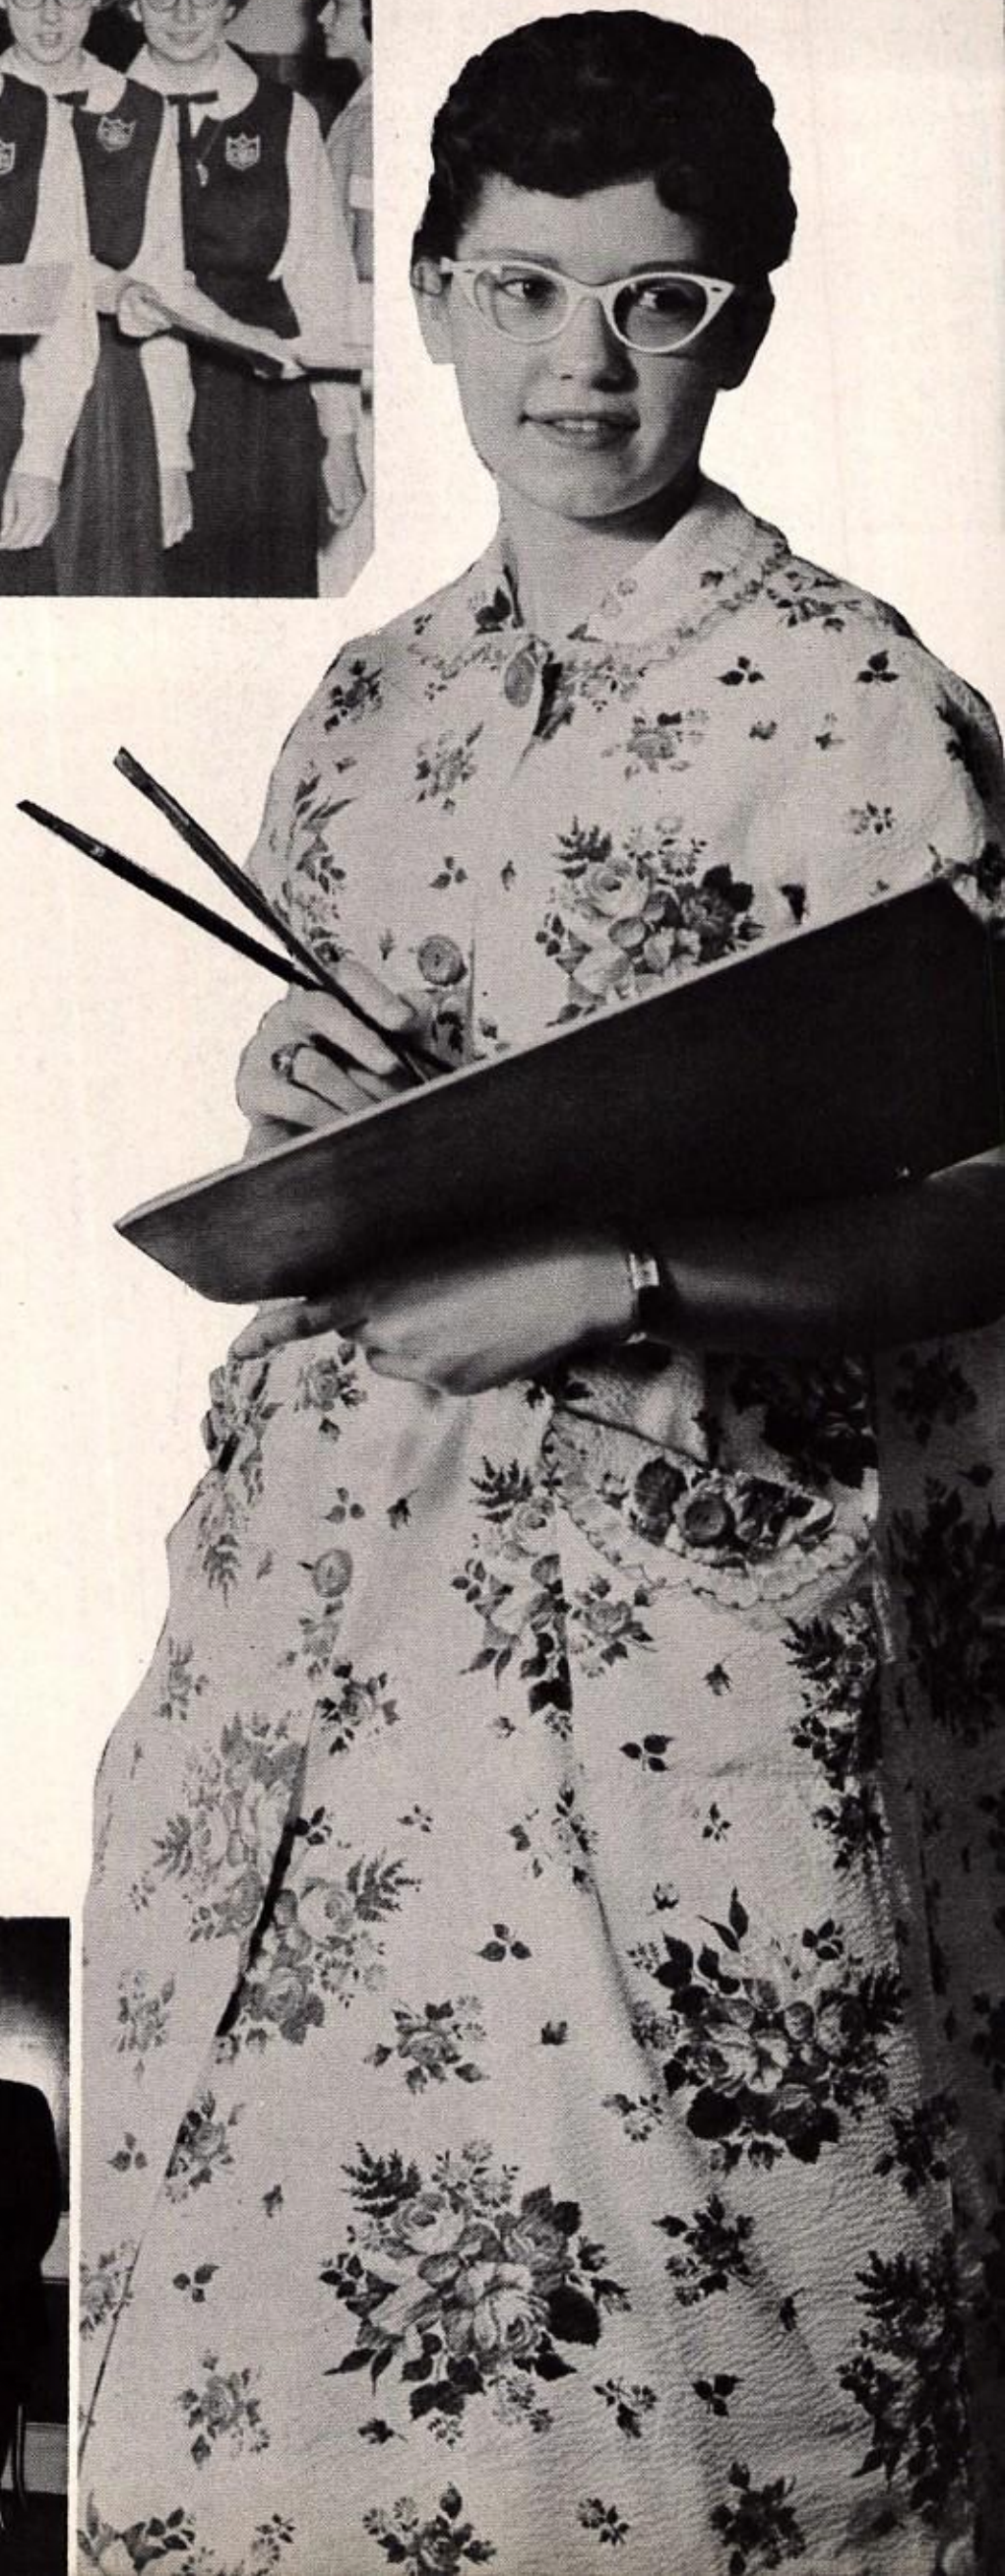

Style

THE STYLE IS COURTEOUS. Seniors J. Seidl, P. Parks, D. Udris, L. Dailey, P. Strycharz, M. Walaconis welcome the diocesan teachers to TCHS during the Teachers Institute.

THE STYLE IS CHIC. Above, Mrs. Holden helps D. Tribull arrange the pretty apron she made in sewing class. M. Riley and A. Rowan assist. Below, a group of upperclassmen and their dates pose during the Mistletoe Hop. They are: I. Hasselberger, S. Brier, C. Wagner, M. Desien, L. Lagna, J. Dickenson, J. Seidl, and M. Budzik. At right, P. Staszak, artist, and her palette.

THE STYLE IS ARTFUL. Margie Knauer, Pat Staszak, and Mary Jane Holmes pose beside one of their oils. They and Charlotte Hockaday, Jo Anne Weidele and Mary West each had an exhibit of their oil paintings during the annual Art Exhibit held in the school on Friday and Sunday, May 11 and 13.

We Fashioned

DISPLAYING one of the posters used in connection with Art Exhibit are: P. Dziewit, C. Olchowski, P. Muchla.

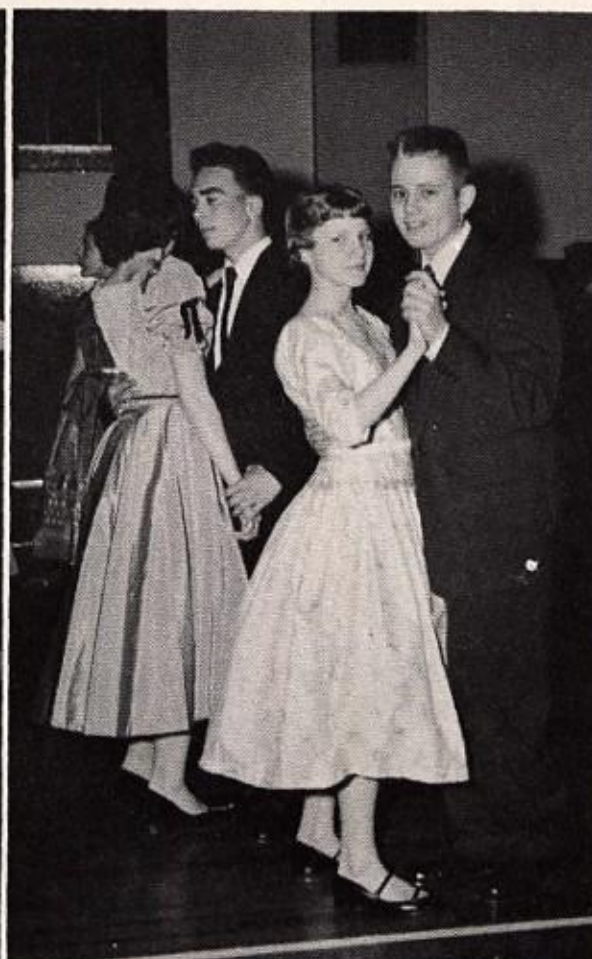

WHO WOULD EVER recognize these fancy Easter Eggs that Mary Neumann, Lillian Maxwell, Joanne Mooney are arranging for the Art Exhibit as mere Friday diet?

new twists and turns

Our story picks up tempo . . .

FRESHMAN CAPERS. Dates seem to be taking the Freshman Hop casually. Josephine Millie and Albena Kazda are at the left. Right, freshies still look cheerful although we can see only one boy present.

Sophomore and Freshman Hops

ALL-AGLITTER SOPHOMORES exchanged green uniforms for festive party frocks and smooth dancing. Hi-Notes provided the music for this and the freshman dances.

EVERY CURL had to be just right at the Mistletoe Hop, and these pretty seniors, Vicky Panczeka, Claire Palm and Dolores Daily, want nothing less than perfection, even if their escorts have to wait.

"MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS." The Mistletoe Hop certainly is a happy memory as these dancing juniors and seniors indicate. Highlight of the Christmas holidays, the affair at the Alcazar, Dec. 29, was sponsored by the Mothers Club. Carl Hamilton provided the music.

This story gets better as it Dances along . . .

JUNIORS AND THEIR DATES arrived for the annual Junior Dance on Friday, May 4. At right: Bill Maisel and his orchestra helped these charming looking dancers enjoy the evening in the gym-turned-palm-grove setting.

CATHY BARRANGER and Carol Baulmiller, above, twirl away happily. Carol crowned the Blessed Mother in customary consecration of the evening to Our Lady. Joan Wehner read the Act of Consecration.

SPARKLING JUNIORS compare notes between dances. Chaperones for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Cavanaugh, Mr. and Mrs. James Fincham, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Franz, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gue, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pistorio, Mr. and Mrs. James Silk, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vesley.

SENIOR PROM. Bill Maisel's orchestra was playing for these fashionably dressed couples on Senior Prom night, Friday, April 13. Class Prexy Lorraine Lagna dedicated evening to Our Lady, in traditional ceremony.

PAUSE THAT REFRESHES is enjoyed by Pat Drusano, Karen Warns, Judy Fowler, and dates, during intermission in the cafeteria.

NOW PROMENADE ALL . . . Seniors form in line for the Grand March. Mary Twomey, Gerry Kresslein, and Barbara May are in foreground.

REMEMBER THE NIGHT . . . Chaperones Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Annarino, Mr. and Mrs. John Kresslein, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lagna, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Palm distribute surprise favors to delighted couples.

COLORFUL GOWNS, laughing couples, dashing dates helped make the Senior Promenade a memorable occasion. Senior officials and class reps formed the prom committee.

create a pleasing interlude.

SLEEPY TIME GAL? Members of the cast garbed mostly for sleepy-time indulge in a bit of frivolity with castor oil during the opening scene. Presented on November 11 and 13 in the auditorium, the musical-cale vehicled much TCHS talent.

LEADING CHARACTERS and chorus are caught in a final scene, below. This song and dance fantasia was strung about the fortunes of the women-folk of Wisteria Hollow Plantation during the Civil War. Southern belles told the story through the media of song and dance, pretty costumes, and effective staging.

In the dramatic manner . . .

Swanee Serenade

BALLET NUMBERS added to the variety and sparkle of Swanee Serenade. Members of the ballet were: Eileen Asplen, Irene Charcut, Patricia Connor, Angela DeFontes, Joanna Fields, Merle Kaweck, Pat Kohl, Marlene Conrad, Betty Masemore, Mary Ann McKay, June Suhre.

ONE OF THE SHOW'S picturesque moments finds Marie Deck, Joan Drew and the chorus looking on at an intriguing dance routine. Glee Club Officers are: President Marie Deck, Secretary Judy Lind, Treasurer Joanne Speer, Historian Marlene Mix, Publicity Manager Barbara May.

Foot Notes

GLEE CLUB and A Cappella Choir are caught during the annual Christmas Entertainment held on Sunday, December 18 and Wednesday, the 21st for relatives, friends, and the student body.

A WING SHOT catches Director Lansinger conducting the Orchestra in a spirited interpretation of White Christmas during the Christmas Entertainment. Both Orchestra and Glee Club were guest musicians at city and neighboring schools—Calvert Hall, Loyola, Padua, to name a few.

Naturally, a TCHS story is crammed with . . .

Suspense

"OH, MY ACHING BONES!" groan girls of Section 1D as they pause rigidly during a gym class. Both freshmen and sophomores are rostered for physical education.

A time element is involved . . . Freshmen

THE CURIOUS CASE OF MR. X. Section 4D learns to reduce algebraic fractions to lowest terms. Standing, l-r, are J. Linz, G. LaPresti, E. Livingston. Seated are M. Kalet, C. Jones, B. Kelly.

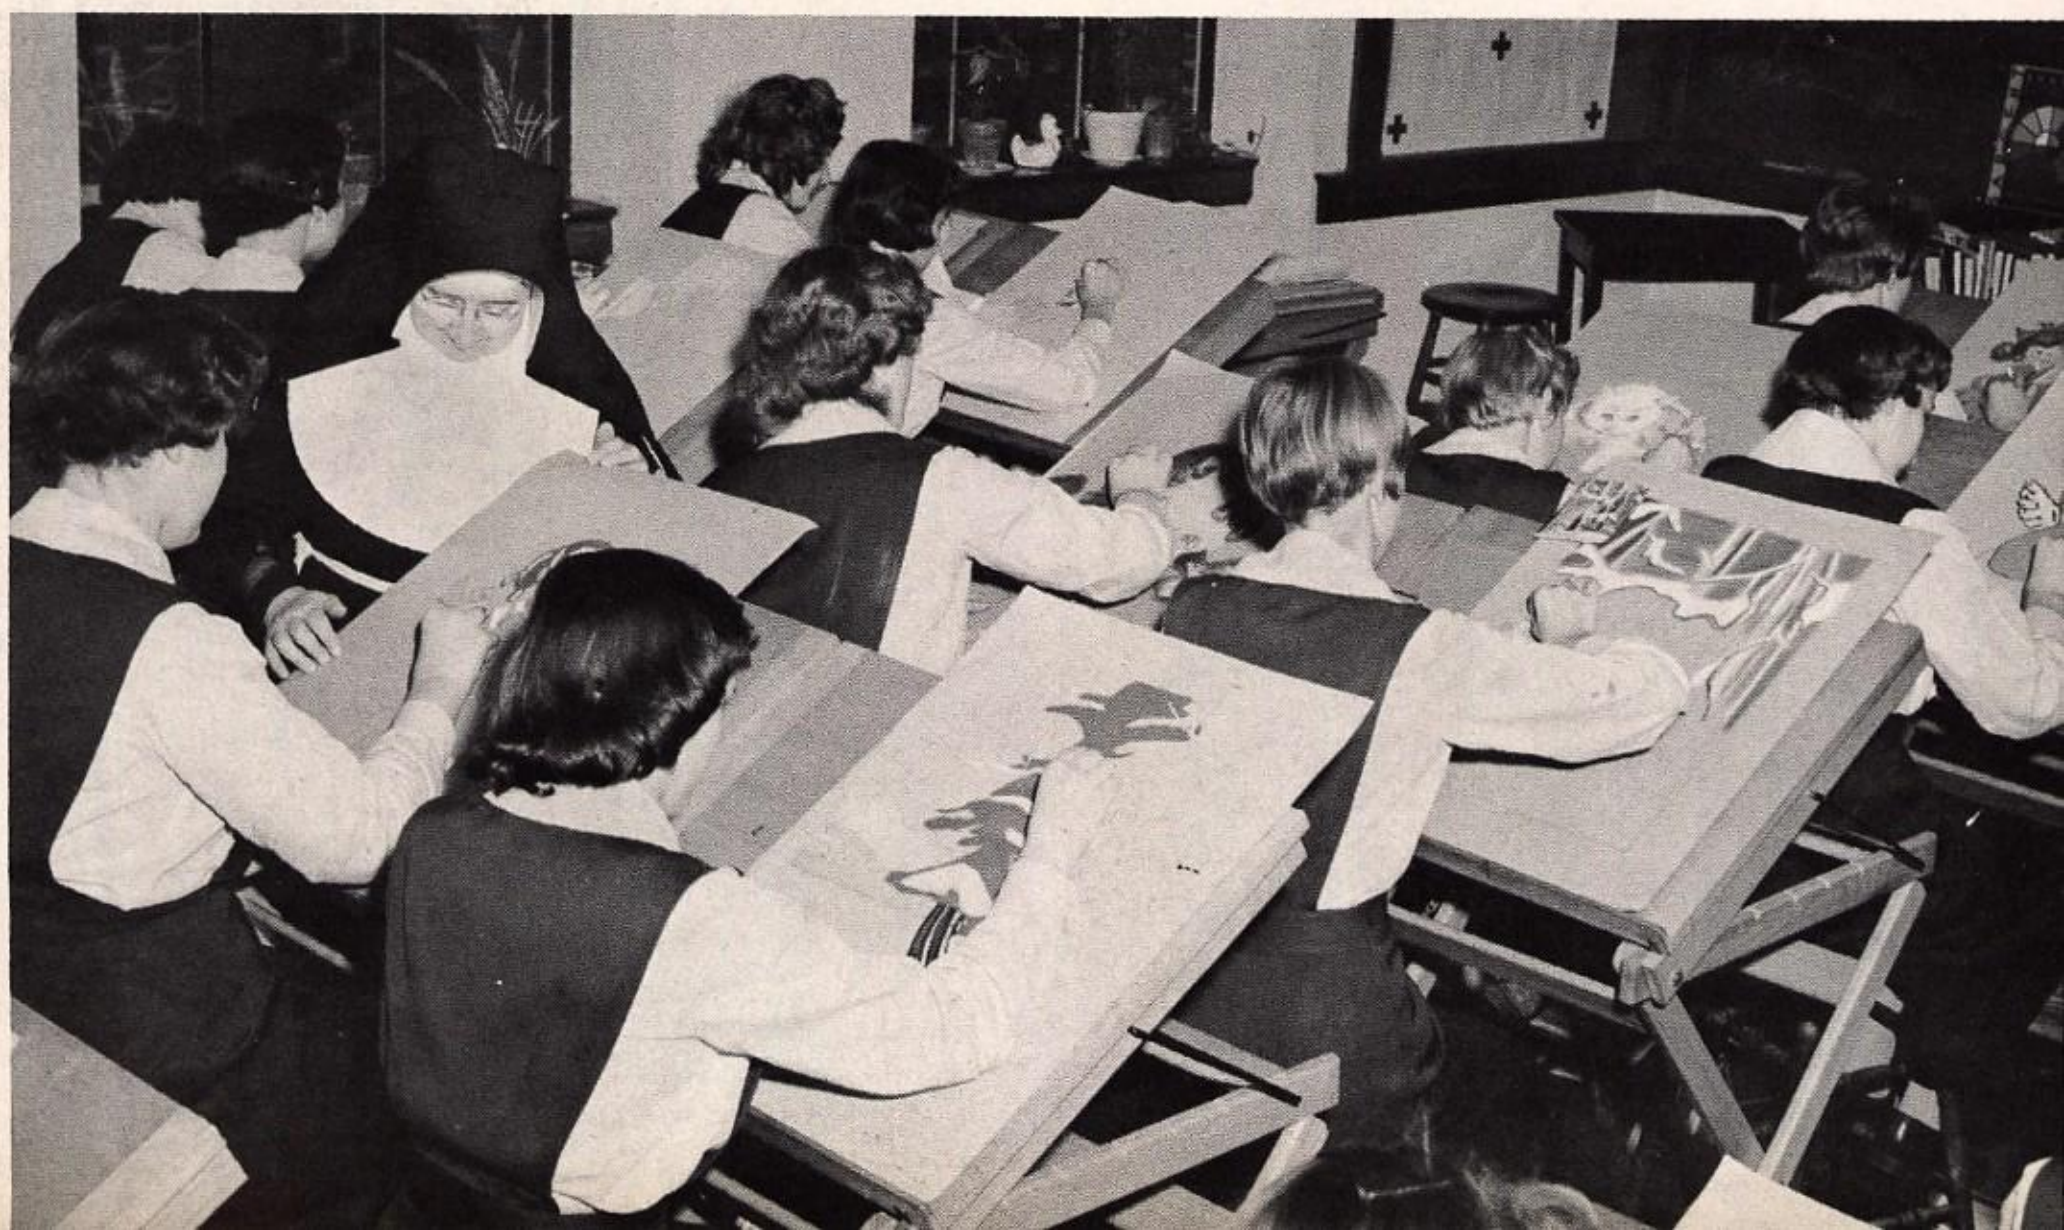

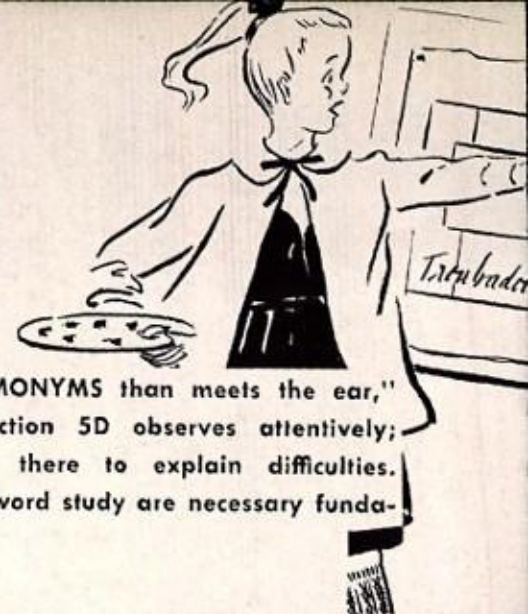

"LATIN REALLY ISN'T DEAD," avers J. Quental as she quizzes 6D classmates on the derivation of English words from Latin roots in the Preamble to the Constitution. Miss Marking stands ready to give assistance if needed.

THIS IS IT. Sr. Marietta supervises the last examination of the year that Section 7D had to take. During the last week of school, girls discard uniforms for ordinary wear. This religion exam certainly is absorbing everybody's attention.

ABOVE SR. STEPHEN, who is busy with M. Alden at the office phone, is the statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus reminding students and faculty members that it is in His Name and for His glory this school is conducted. Below, a freshman art class steered by Sr. Jane Frances dip into the pool of imagination to render talent on canvas.

SISTERS M. RICHARD AND M. CABRINI of the Medical Missionary Sisters on March 12 showed the student body slides of their work in Pakistan and India. Before the illustrated lecture, we find these Sisters chatting with Sr. M. Lucetta and Lorraine Lagna who will introduce them to the student body.

BOLD ENGLISH BARONS (J. Culotte, J. Cantore, M. Donahue, C. Claretice to you) crowd around His Majesty King John (B. Day) forcing him to sign the Magna Carta. When? 1215 A.D., of course, although currently seen in Sr. Cordella's 2D history class through the magic of dramatization.

STARVED! Big-eyed freshies line up gleefully for a nourishing hot lunch. Seniors share this lunch hour with freshmen except on days when Father Echle gives religious instruction. Then sophs and freshmen dine together.

As Sophomores there was never enough time to do all we'd planned.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS receive their Eucharistic Lord during Holy Mass offered by Father Poletti on Sunday, April 15. After Mass, mother and daughter enjoyed a catered breakfast served in the cafeteria. Over 300 attended.

THE REVEREND Adrian M. Poletti, C.P., speaks at the Mother-Daughter Communion Breakfast. Mrs. Ernest Lagna, Mrs. Joseph Mooney, and Mrs. J. Tavik are at the speaker's table.

BERNADETTE RUPINSKI shows admiring classmates the dress she made in home-ec period. These girls modeled apparel for the Mothers Club Party, December 11.

HOLY NIGHT. The strains of Silent Night fill the shepherds with awe. Bringing the Nativity to life during the Christmas Entertainment are Carol Niedzwick and Pat Conroy as Mary and Joseph; Helen Connolly, Joan Haviland, Sheila Foster as the angels; and Rita Melewski, Kathleen Parks, and Catherine David as the shepherds. Below, in the Magi tableau, Christine Murphy, Elizabeth Dyer, and Marlene Gunther took the parts of the Kings.

Noel! Noel!

HE THAT IS MIGHTY hath done great things to me! In the Visitation tableau, Carol Sullivan, right, impersonated Elizabeth; Norma Beasley, Our Lady.

SCIENTISTS-IN-THE-MAKING. J. Kotula and S. Amato watch Sr. Camilla squeeze a hydra onto a slide for some close microscopic study. E. Weitzel and M. Contino already have their specimen. Sophs study Latin, English, biology, geometry and religion, as majors. Home-ec, art, and music majors may be elected. A speech course in forensic techniques was initiated this year.

New Subjects,

SISTER FLAVIANA'S 4C SPEECH CLASS seems absorbed in the article "Richard II" which Mary Bon is reading aloud from Practical English, a magazine that supplies class with up-to-the-minute informative drill.

new activities created a different suspense.

Top, right: Mr. George Shisler, who this year terminated 17 years' service at TCHS, admits underclassmen who will assist with the Senior Prom. Next, Mr. Henry Elsesser and Mr. George Schuessler inspect TCHS latest arrivals—the rosebuds. Third, Mrs. Allen, school nurse, gives some special care to two sophs. Next is Mrs. Jordan, R.N., from St. Joseph's Hospital, who gives weekly instruction in hygiene to the seniors. Last are Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Helen who serve tasty meals to hungry students.

JANIS LEILICH AND SHIRLEY ERNEST show Sr. Jean Clare their project on shells. Sr. Genevieve checks with Betty Kasik and Pat Karwacki on the fern, all part of the Science Fair held in the auditorium on April 26.

"GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT," say J. Cichowicz, A. Berna, M. Buchacz and Pat Cavanaugh as they proudly take their muffins from the oven. Tea and muffins finished off this lab foods class. Not a bad close for a school day—what?

"THE EGYPTIANS HAD NOTHING ON US," say L. Serdahely, M. Sidlack, and others from 5C struggling with their own triangles and trapezoids. These confident mathematicians are sure to rate approval from Sr. Marietta when they erect correctly their own difficult pyramids.

ENTHUSIASTICALLY YOURS. The 1955-1956 cheerleaders are: M. Kalet, C. Amend, A. Slimbach, L. Coomes, P. Muchla, M. Rebbert, R. Rutkowski, A. Rowan.

MEMBERS OF THE PAL-ETTES are busy hanging their paintings for the Art Exhibit. L-r are: J. Sliwka, C. Bradyhouse, J. Becker, M. Sidlack, L. Serdahally.

the Suspense continues . . .

JEAN SPILLANE, Rita Stadler, and Mary DeAngelis beam happily as Mrs. Zeller presents them and dates with the door prizes at the Sophomore Hop.

HERE WE COME! Juniors and Sophomores are on their way to the cafeteria.

APPLE-TOFFY. There's always a few minutes before the end of lunch to nibble on a sticky apple and compare homework. Taking advantage of the break are sophs: F. Justice, J. Zahner, J. Ritzwalski, C. Check, D. Nichols, M. Antoni, M. Pospicil.

Laughter by the minute-full . . .

Junior-Senior Day

NOTHING IS MORE hilarious than the program the juniors stage for the delight of the graduating class. This year's junior entertainment committee consisted of: Martha Bromwell, Janet Hisley, 1B; Diana Huesman, Joan Wehner, 2B; Mary Kachauskas, Pat Coomes, 3B; Marie Papiri, Marleen Novakaski, 4B; Rosalie Hajewski, Pat Kilduff, 5B; Ann Jean Honan, Jackie Sudano, 6B.

KALEIDOSCOPE OF JUNIOR JITTERS. After Holy Mass offered for the graduating class, the homespun talent show was produced. Lunch in the cafeteria was followed by a technicolor movie. You will find something from every show on these pages.

GREGG SPEEDSTERS. Sr. Margaret Philomene's junior sten girls are racing ahead to make an eighty-words-a-minute record. Contestants are, l-r: C. David, S. Nasuro, A. Fedi, G. Fincham, S. Zaccari, R. Hajewski, R. Krucky.

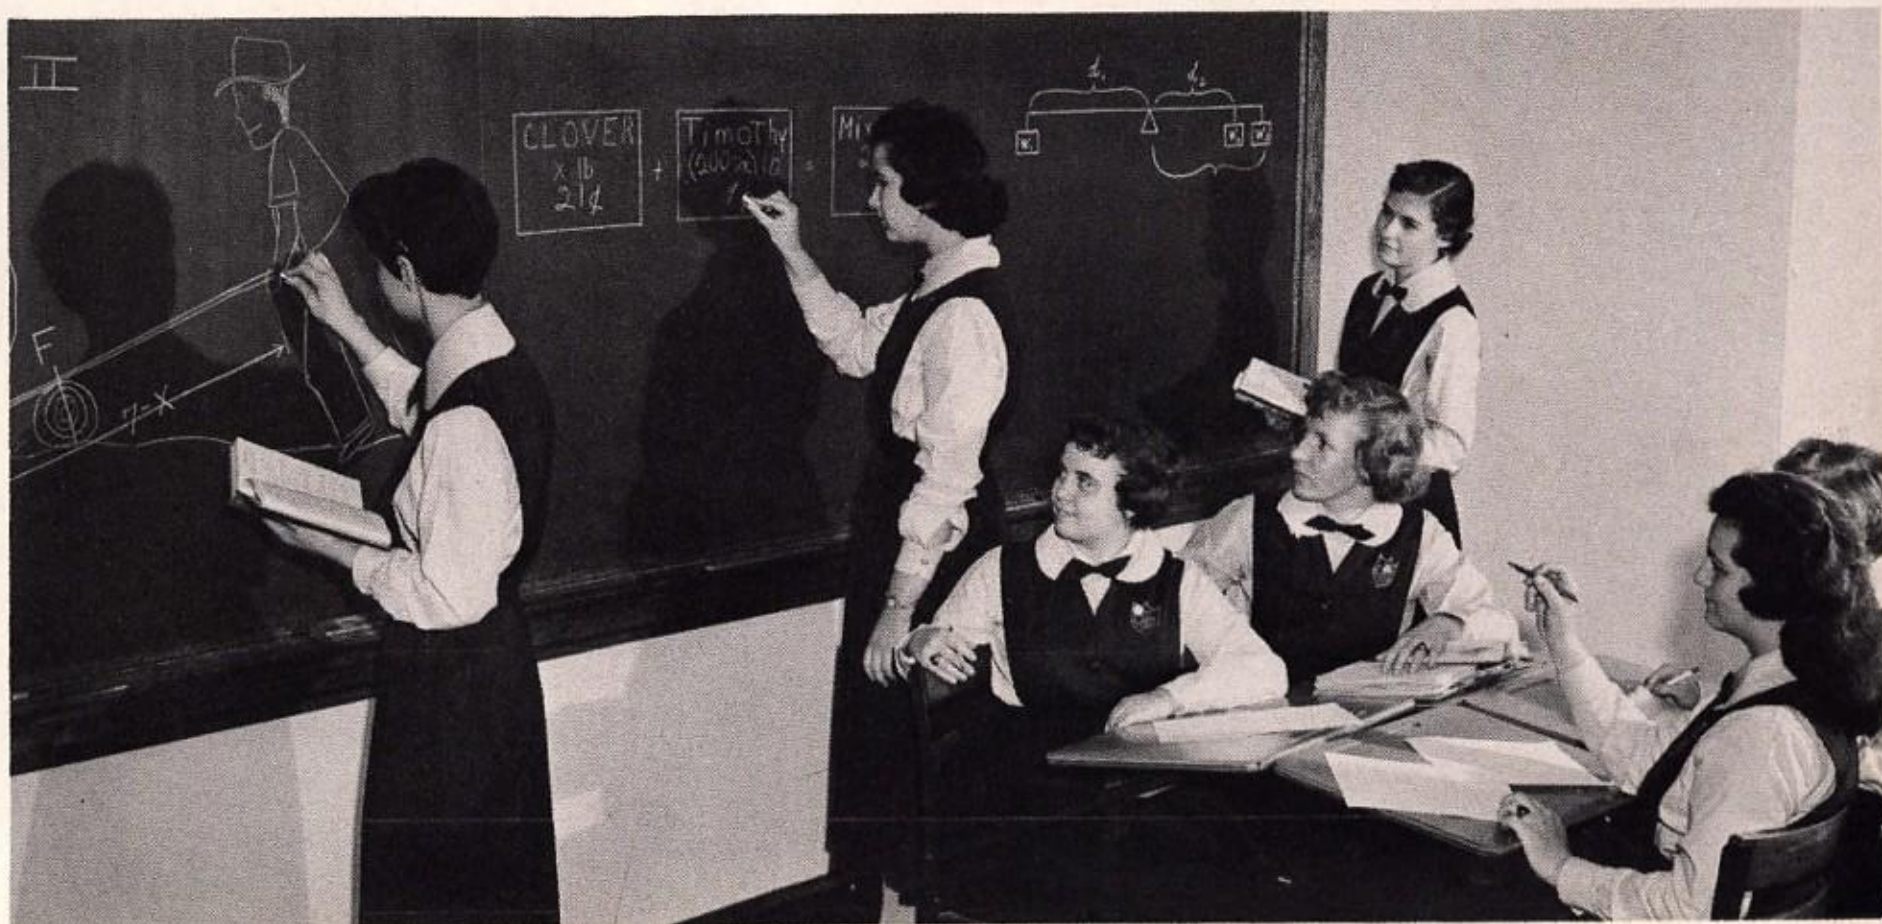

THIS IS MY LIFE. Delving into literary history, these girls are getting material to impersonate important poets for their American literature class in a This Is My Life program. L-r are: E. Dyer, S. Raphel, G. Kofsky, D. Finecy, D. Majka, Chairman Pasqueline Hartley, and C. Barranger.

ENGROSSING MOMENTS IN AMERICAN HISTORY. C. Hunt points out famous documents of our liberty as N. Brown, B. Duffy, M. Papiri, M. Heinermann prepare to explain their origin and significance to Section 4B.

Juniors . . .

SPECIALISTS NEEDED. Mr. X will never lift that 1,000 lb. rock unless he consults with Sr. Margaret Dolores' Algebra II class. As L. Vallar studies Mr. X's problem, J. Eckhard and B. Amrein have other weighty matters to consider.

Supporting Roles

"BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS," declares Sr. Felicitas' business math class, as it looks on interestedly as Mildred Welles completes a problem in compound interest.

SPANISH. Section 6B digresses from sentence structure and other language fundamentals to learn a Spanish song. V. McElwee leads these students of Sr. Honorine's Spanish I class.

"NEXT, PLEASE," says super-saleswoman Pasqueline Hartley as she helps Sr. Maxelinda in the bookstore.

WILL IT WORK? thinks Daryll Moore. Meanwhile, P. Baihearst tests the litmus, M. Balcer holds a bottle of gas and H. Rabb watches carefully during this experiment to collect ammonia gas. Both Modern Classical and Latin-Science students take chemistry. Below, Daryll gazes happily on her long awaited school ring.

We've been building up to Something Big . . .

AFTER REMINDING SENIORS and juniors that their school rings are symbols of loyalty and integrity, Father Griffith from St. Bernard's Parish blesses the long-awaited rings in a ceremony that occurred on December 13. Blessing was followed by benediction of the most Blessed Sacrament, pictured below.

SR. CARMELIA WATCHES CLOSELY as Joan Buettner and Joyce Murphy guide the class through the intricate gerund structure. Catherine Keichenmeister and Paula Berna look on in this Latin III class. Sr. Carmelia also teaches French I to this group.

CHEM CLUB OFFICERS are: President Louise Vallar, Vice-President Gertrude Kofsky, Secretary Geraldine Giossi, and Treasurer Brenda Bohn. This year the club took a trip to the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia.

A SOUND MATTER. Studying the sound structure of the organ in the auditorium makes an absorbing physics lesson. E. Plewack, J. Dickenson, D. Kubin, C. Simet, F. Drusano, K. Warns follow attentively as Sr. M. Constantine imparts facts about sound as applied to the science of organ building.

CHALK TALKS. Working out sines and cosines brings Pat Novotny to her knees. Helping Pat are M. Businsky, M. Noonan, J. Otremba, R. Eder, and A. Adelsburger in this senior trig class.

PUBLIC SERVICE. Dot Kubin's arty pose was styled by the gentleman at the far right who conducted the chest x-ray examinations in February, a service offered by the Maryland State Board of Health. Next in line after Dot are S. Rolfes, P. DeFrancis, and S. Nichols.

STARS FROM SWANEE SERENADE. Standing are R. Hajewski, T. Callahan, M. Mix, J. Winterling, and C. Giordano. Seated are J. Dew, M. Deck, and Master Tommie Whittington, the latter probably scheduled for Calvert Hall about 1966.

SENIORS' CHOICE — Calvert Hall; undergraduates—Mt. St. Joe. This decision was revealed in the annual patron drive, whose scores the seniors above are analyzing.

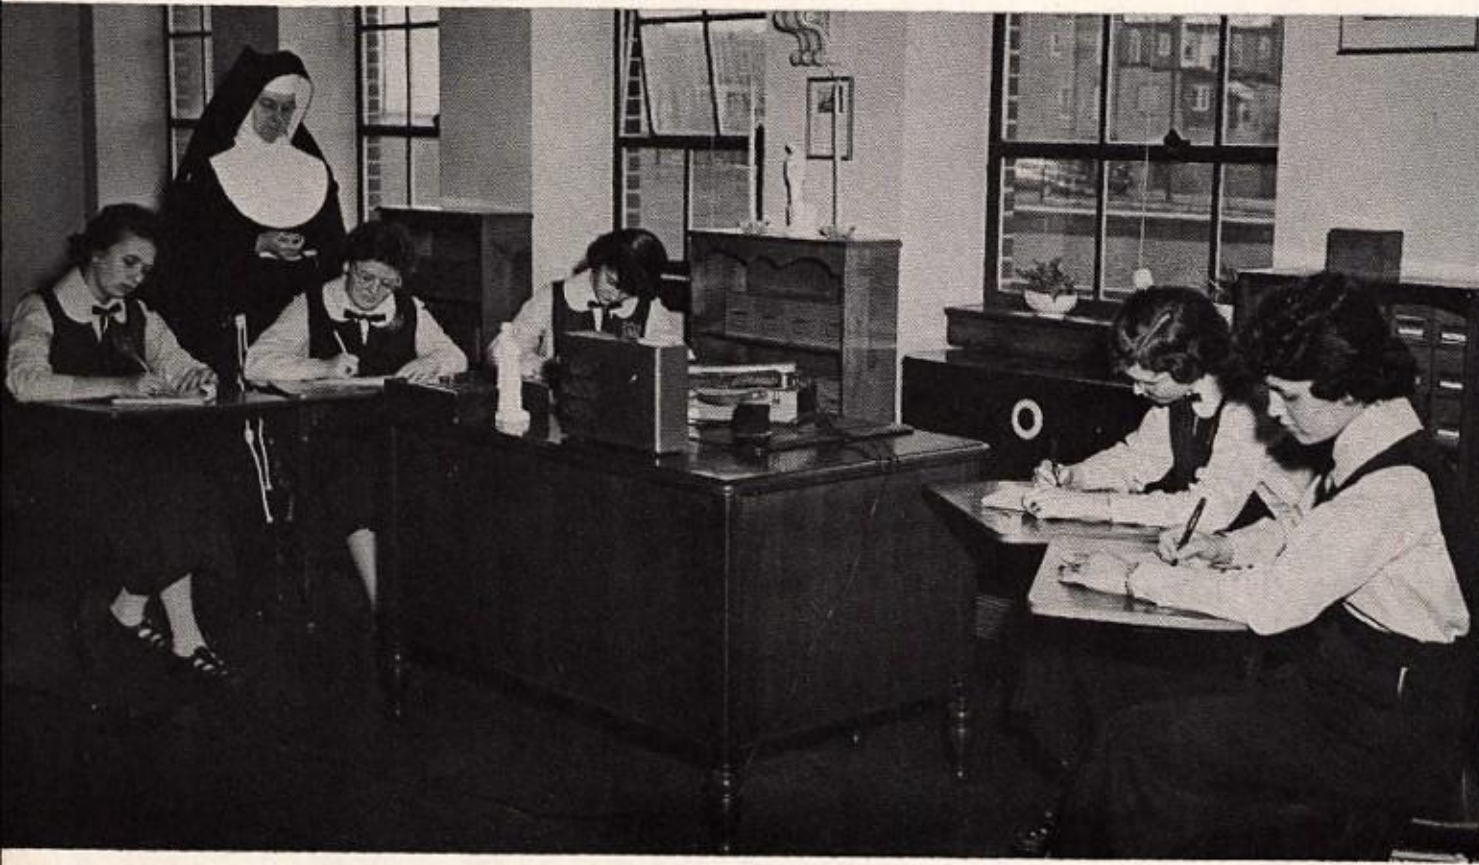

APOSTLES LEAGUE President Joanne Picarelli talks with the Reverend J. M. Connolly who addressed the student body on March 13 concerning religious life.

MACHINE-WISE. Vicky Panceszcn and Veronica Kowalczyk use the Monroe Adding Machine to check on answers for their bookkeeping practice set.

Busy Scribes

noted every detail with care.

NO PLATTER CHATTER HERE. Sr. M. DeSales uses commercial records to race these seniors to faster achievements in dictation. B. Kosker, R. Lamendola, M. Yewell, D. Hubbel, and M. Caretti are seen. Above, right, Section 3A manipulates the R. L. Dean practice set in this Bookkeeping I class. Sr. Clare Helene sees that checks are written accurately.

PERSONAL TYPEWRITING is an elective for Modern Classical students. Flying fingers of these 2A hustlers display precision, accuracy, and control. Sr. M. Fidelma looks on.

NO MISPLACED LETTERS HERE. Sr. Joan Ignatius checks on M. Little's work as T. Hughes waits to ask a question. Filing is an important unit in this Office Practice class.

DEMONSTRATING THE STEPS necessary to write their term paper, M. Mirassou, C. Vecchioni, C. Gulliver, and P. Jones guide Section 5A through an important English IV assignment.

PARLEZ-VOUS FRANCAIS? Mais oui! Some of Sr. Jane Frances' French II scholars plan a pictorial trip to Paris. Standing are M. Scollo, M. Buzinsky, D. Kubin. Seated are M. Mulheran, D. Drysowaty, J. Maas, P. Donnelly, M. Holmes.

ROMA. Reclining in their villa on the Tiber (Reading Room to you), these Roman ladies of Latin IV (B. May, P. Kresslein, J. Schwartz, M. Murphy, J. Oronson, K. Huesman), thoughtfully study a display of the classic architecture that made their country famous.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE RECORDS for four years were achieved by: S. Brier, H. Stamer, J. Otremba, A. Fisher, M. Petro, A. Adelsberger, G. Kresslein, P. Novotny, C. Sheridan, 1A; R. Janowski, J. Big Drives were planned carefully.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE IN ORDER to these distinguished seniors who lead their class in supporting the patron drive. This year's scores topped all previous records, with Sections 7D and 4D leading the undergraduates; 1A, the seniors.

TOP-NOTCHERS. For four years Shirley Rolfes, Lorraine Lagna, Mary Eleanor Boia placed high in the top supporters of the annual Troubadour Patron Drive. This year, Margaret Beatty, see picture below, lead the school with Lorraine Lagna, Helena Stamer, Dorothy Finecy, and Kathleen Porter following respectively.

CREAM OF THE OCTOBER CATHOLIC MAGAZINE CROP. Star supporters are seen on the first row with Sr. M. Lucetta and Sr. M. Carmelia, moderator of the activity—M. Boia, C. Jones, F. Magnani, M. Beatty, E. Asplen. Close on their heels followed the girls seen standing with Sr. M. Constantine and Mr. Joseph Brown of the Catholic Digest, Inc.—P. Muchla, C. Wiseman, M. Weidele, K. Lioi.

OLD TIMERS embrace the orphans of Baltimore in the magnetic spirit of TCHS charity. Alumnae members brought hundreds of beautifully wrapped gifts to the December 18 meeting. In May, they contributed forty dresses and seventeen suits for First Communicants. In January, in conjunction with the student body, they held the Annual Bingo which provides funds for building expansion and improvements and for scholarships.

LEGION OF DECENCY Officers from Baltimore's Catholic high schools met at TCHS. Mount LD members produced a skit for the occasion. Mount LD moderator, and Father Murphy who is in charge of the Baltimore LD unit, stand directly behind TCHS LD President Pat Staszak at the mike.

'TIS THE SEASON FOR LITTLE ONES TO BE JOLLY. Wide-eyed, frolicsome, these youngsters from Dolan's Aid watch the camera. Sodalist Hostesses Diana Masaites, Barbara Lease, Mary Desien, Anita Olesczuck, and Marlene Brescia seem to enjoy their guests. A movie, lunch, games, and presents from the homerooms were part of the fun.

CSMC OUTING. These seniors accompanied several hundred undergraduates to Washington, May 5. They visited the Capitol, Smithsonian Institute, Franciscan Monastery, and other points of interest in a guided tour. Above, right, is CSMC President Marlene Idzik.

SUE BRIER, one of the four top editors of the 1956 yearbook, snaps a few last testaments of Baccalaureate Sunday.

GALLEY SLAVES. Ida Barrett, Mary Anne Sweeney, Judy Lind, and Margie Matcuk proof-read galleys on the senior section during the last week of school.

WHAT WAS YOUR ANSWER? Perennial inquiry after an exam is bartered back and forth by C. Mohr, J. Mooney, M. Newmann, and B. McElwee as they check on answers after the last exam on June 7. This scene was too late for the last edition of the school newspaper but still made the yearbook deadline for final news.

IF GLORIA CORRAL, Highway photographer, is slanting her lens at Joyce Ringsdorf and Dot Freeman, how is it that we also see assistant editors Mary Morrow, Rosemary Lamendola, and Patricia Meusel? Even Gloria, too? In conjunction with the yearbook staff, these girls journeyed to New York over the week-end of March 16 to attend the Columbia Press Convention.

NO MORE TEACHERS . . . no more books! True enough, but only for a few months before these freshies, seen stacking away textbooks at the close of the school year, will be returning as full-fledged sophs. Happy vacation days to all!

ANOTHER VIEW OF THE MAY CROWNING. Seniors in caps and gowns formed a guard of honor for the court and the undergraduates.

AFTER THE OUTDOOR PROCESSION, Benediction and a sermon were given in the auditorium. Queen and court file into the school last. Many relatives and friends witness this event.

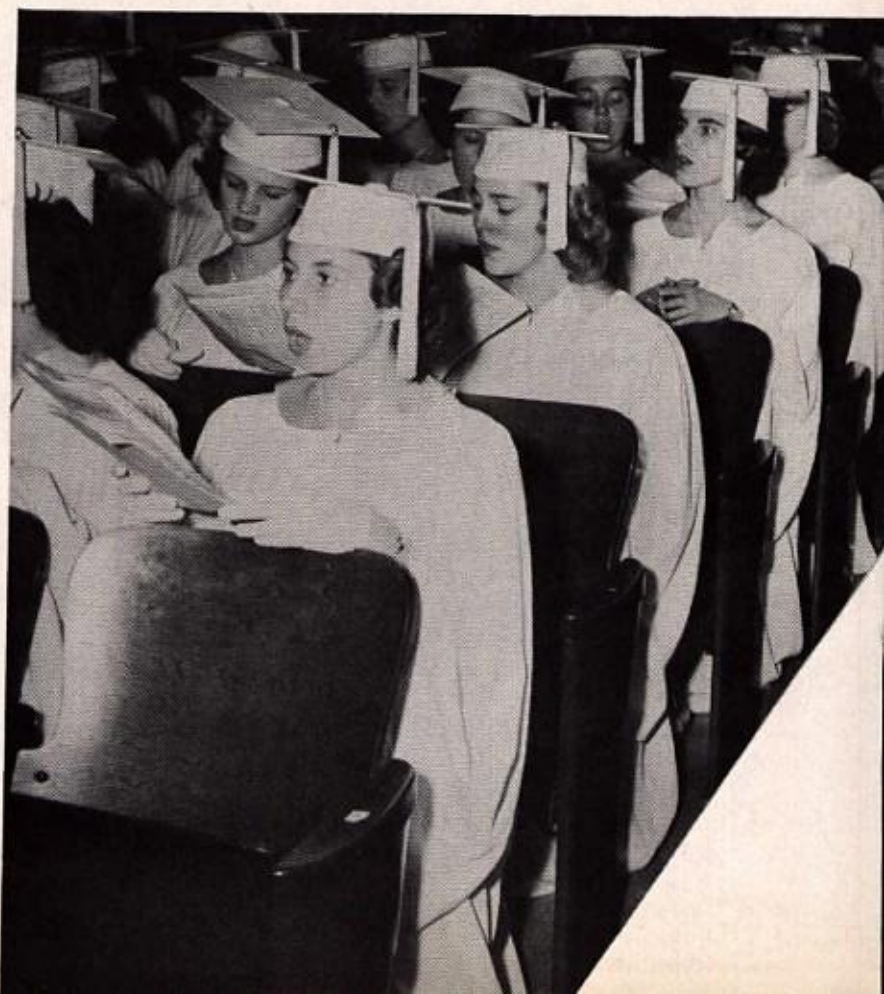

REVEREND J. EDWARD YEALDHALL addresses the student body at the close of the May Procession.

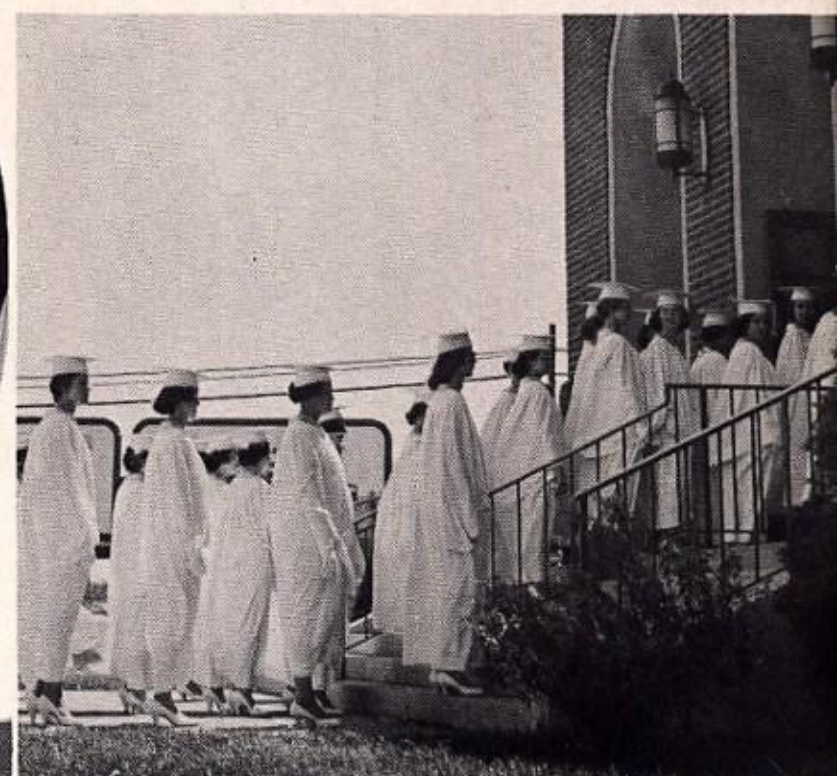

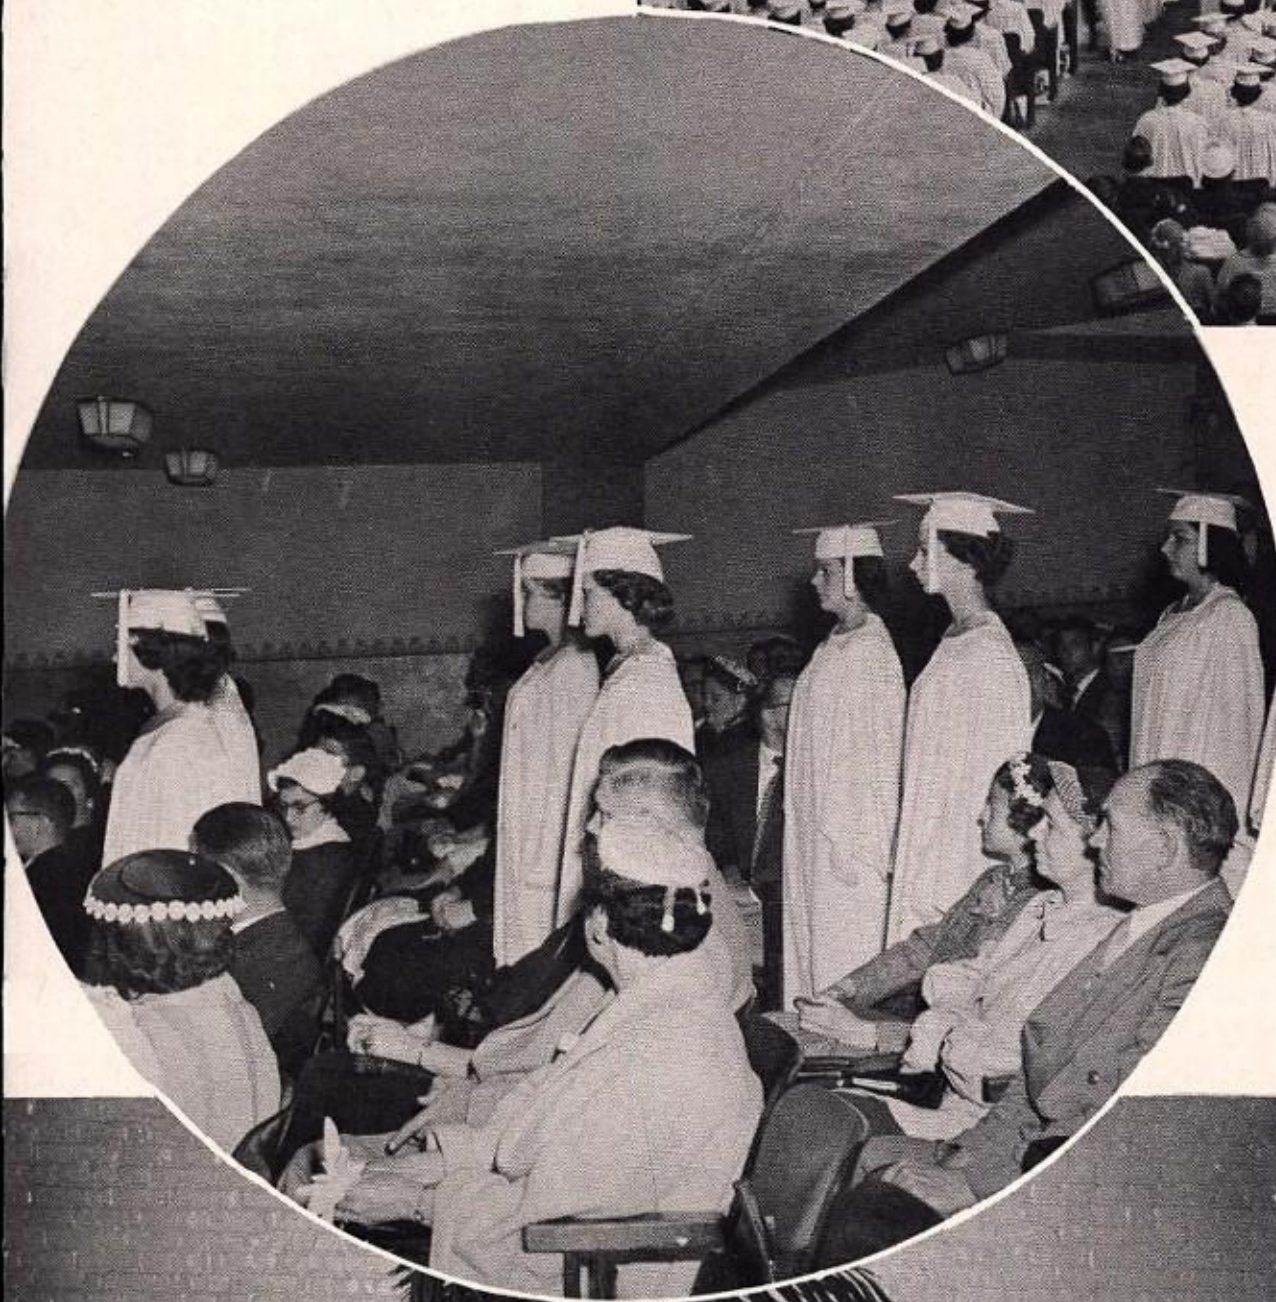

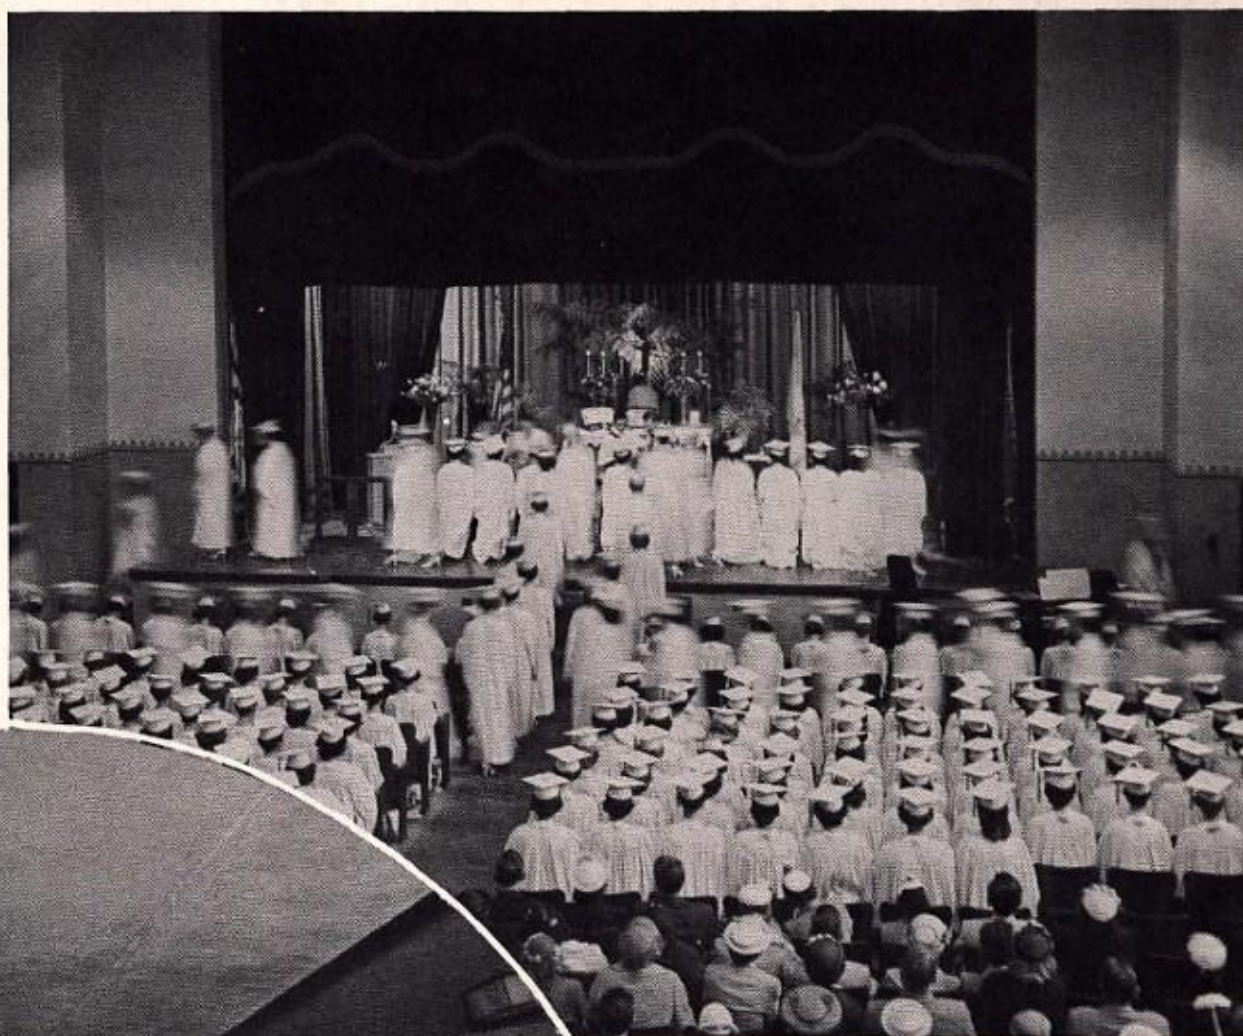

BACCALAUREATE SUNDAY. A quick shot before the graduates dip into their catered breakfast reveals this line of happy faces. Below, the graduates sang the Mass Missa Spes Mea. Parents and friends attended the affair held on Sunday, May 27.

NOW FULL-FLEDGED ALUMNAE MEMBERS of their beloved Alma Mater, these graduates close the story of their school life. Florine Magnani is at the right.

AFTER HIS ADDRESS TO THE GRADUATES, the Most Reverend Jerome D. Sebastian, auxiliary Bishop of Baltimore, prepares to leave the stage of the Lyric Theatre with the Very Reverend Monsignor Leo J. McCormick.

BYE NOW. Family and friends mill outside the Lyric looking for their favorite graduate. Is that Joan Kuehl and Carolyn Born looking somewhat forlorn? After all the hoping for and dreaming of this occasion, it came too soon. It always does.

Like all good stories, this has a

Happy Ending.

Appreciatively . . .

★ The production of this 1956 Troubadour has involved many hands, various talents, generous cooperation.

★ From the time the shutter began to click last fall until the last graduation picture was snapped in June, the evolution of this annual proceeded quickly or slowly, quietly or throbbingly as events took shape. It is not possible to express adequately the Staff's appreciation of the cooperation that both faculty and student body rendered so loyally.

★ Nor can this 1956 Staff suitably indicate the value of the technical assistance it enjoyed from the services of Mr. John Ursprung, jr. of the Wm. T. Cooke Publishing Co., Inc., and from both Mr. Karl Segall and Mr. Wm. Kocher of Segall-Majestic Studios.

★ For all assistance in the 1956 Troubadour, the Staff expresses sincere appreciation.
